

INDICT M'LEAN FOR SOLICITING CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Treasurer of New York State Democratic Committee Accused of Appealing to Republicans For Aid.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Arthur McLean, treasurer of the democratic state committee, was indicted Thursday afternoon on two counts for receiving contributions from republicans.

Everett F. Fowler of Kingston, the alleged Tammany "bagman", already under indictment for extortion, was again indicted, charged with soliciting a campaign contribution from a corporation.

Dist. Atty. Whitman had Thursday obtained the indictment also of Thomas Hassett, former secretary to State Engineer Benson, charged with soliciting a bribe from Madison R. Aldrich, a Poughkeepsie contractor, but the grand jury did not have time to hear all the witnesses in the case Thursday.

It will be taken up Friday afternoon.

The indictment of McLean makes the third growing out of the district attorney's investigation of John A. Hennessy's charges of graft in the state highway department.

Sent a Thousand.
The first count against McLean, whose home is in Newburgh, was based chiefly on the testimony of Matthew Van Alstyne of Albany, an officer of the Shawangunk Construction company, who testified that he had sent a campaign contribution of $1,000 in the form of a bank draft to McLean in Oct., 1912, and received therefor McLean's receipt. The other count was based on testimony of Harold V. Owens, secretary and treasurer of the Dale Engineering company of Utica, that in the same month he had sent a check for $400 to McLean as a campaign contribution for his corporation.

The new indictment against Fowler was based on Owen's testimony that Fowler had solicited him for the contribution. Under the state laws either the solicitation or the acceptance of a campaign contribution from a corporation is a misdemeanor, punishable by a year's imprisonment and a fine of $1,000. No warrant was issued for McLean's arrest and it was understood that he would be given an opportunity to give himself up.

Draft Introduced.
Corroborative evidence of Van Alstyne's testimony was introduced before the jury in the form of the original of the $1,000 draft and the post-office registry receipt for the letter in which it was enclosed, signed by E. J. Burke, a messenger in the employ of the democratic state committee. Burke was among the witnesses as were also officials of banks in New York and Albany through which the draft passed, and employees of the state highway department, called to prove that Van Alstyne had highway contracts with the state.

The cancelled check of the Dale Engineering company, endorsed with McLean's signature, was a part of the corroborative evidence introduced in support of the second count.

All the witnesses called to testify against Hassett were subpoenaed to return Friday. The district attorney's John Doe inquiry, at which the evidence against those named under indictment, was originally brought out, will also be resumed Friday. More contractors are expected to testify as to having been "sand-bagged" for campaign contributions.

DISPENSARY USED AS EXAMPLE IN ADDRESS

M. M. McClain Urges More Amusement Places For the Crowded Parts of South Bend.

Claiming that the Children's dispensary was an example of the need of places of recreation, playgrounds and amusement halls in the west end, M. M. McClain discussed the social agency in the community before the society club at the Y. M. C. A. building Thursday night. This method of improvement, he said, was the only source left the city in which to reform conditions in that section.

A discussion of social center work was taken up in a paper by Miss Anne Dushane, in which she explained the good that was being derived from these meetings and plans for the future work of the center.

The question of the club's donation to the Children's dispensary fund was taken up but was left undecided. There will be a donation from this quarter, but the amount has not been named.

GOES TO FEDERAL COURT
Suit Against Local Telephone Company is Transferred.

The damage suit of Jacob Horvath against the Central Union Telephone Co. was transferred from the St. Joseph superior court to the United States district court at Indianapolis on application of the telephone company's attorney, W. B. Mann of Chicago, Thursday. Horvath asks damages for injuries sustained in a cave-in of one of the conduit trenches in which he was working.

Special Pictures of Majestic.

Scenes depicting drills, regimental and brigade reviews and other events at the recent encampment in Ohio were displayed in motion pictures by Fixley Division No. 2, Knights of the Macabees, at the Majestic theater Thursday afternoon and night. The encampment was held in August of the last year and the humorous side of the hot weather was shown, sending the audience into occasional bursts of laughter.

TOOK EVEN CANDY MONEY

RICHMOND, Ind., Dec. 5.—Because of numerous hold-ups and robberies that have occurred here during the last few days, the police force was increased and two emergency automobiles were stationed at police headquarters to answer calls. Among the robberies reported was one where a man stole a few pennies with which a ten-year-old girl intended to buy candy.
